Mathematics Without Borders International Tournament is a tournament for students aged 7 to 18 years (Grade 1 to Grade 12), who will be divided into nine age groups. It will be held in the Philippines in three rounds and ends with a final contest in Bulgaria.

Almost 16,000 students from 21 countries (Australia, Azerbaijan, Afghanistan, Bulgaria, Venezuela, Vietnam, Iran, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Macedonia, Malta, Mexico, Nigeria, Romania, Russia, Slovenia, Turkmenistan, Turkey, Uzbekistan, Switzerland, Philippines) competed during the Autumn Round. For the first time in the tournament, students from Venezuela, Vietnam, Iran, Nigeria and Slovenia also participated.

On the other hand, Jomer Wilson F. Lee (3 Thailand) and Kyra Cher Anne P. Catibog (4 South Korea) also bagged top recognitions from the 2017 International Teenagers Mathematics Olympiad (ITMO). PJ received the Silver Award while KC brought home the Bronze Award from the competition.

The 2017 International Teenagers Mathematics Olympiad (ITMO) was hosted by the Philippines and was held at different venues in the country from November 8 – 12, 2017. About 600 participants and delegates from countries around the world participated in the said competition.

Truly, SSIS is the home of amazing mathletes! Congratulations, Kings! We are proud of you!

SCHOOL HOLDS FIRST HOLY COMMUNION ON NOVEMBER 24

In response to the school's thrust in character formation and values excellence, Stonyhurst Southville International School includes in its annual activities the conduct of the First Holy Communion for its Catholic students. Consequently, we have several students who are candidates to receive the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Confession. They come from Grade 4.

The preparations for the First Holy Communion shall immerse the children to the sacraments that will be conducted by Teacher Patricia Miranda, CLVE Subject Teacher. Likewise, the students and their parents will also undergo recollection prior to their First Holy Communion.

The recollection for students will be on Tuesday, November 21, 2017, from 8:00 AM to 12:00 NN while the recollection for the communicants' parents will also be on the same day, 1:00 - 3:00 PM, at SSIS Malarayat. The communicants' recollection will be facilitated by Bro. Adrian Caraos and Bro. Jan Magcawas.

Confession and general rehearsals for the First Holy Communion will be on Thursday, November 23, 2017, at Parish of Sto. Niño, Maraway, Lipa City.

This year's First Holy Communion will be held on November 24, 2017, 8:00 AM, at the Parish of Sto. Niño, Maraway, Lipa City.
